ORDER ASSESSING CIVIL PENALTIES

This matter came on to be heard by the Tennessee Ethics Commission ("Commission") on June 24, 2008, at its regularly scheduled meeting upon Commission staff's presentation of documentation substantiating that Respondent failed timely to file a Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report ("Report") which each employer of a lobbyist is required to file pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-303(a), or timely amend its registration statement pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-302(c).

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the entire record in this matter, the Commission finds as follows:

1. Registration. Riverside Publishing was registered as an employer of a lobbyist for 2007.
2. Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report.
 - A. On October 2007, Commission staff notified Riverside Publishing by electronic mail that it was required to file a Report for the period ending September 30, 2007, and that such Report was due to be filed by November 15, 2007.
 - B. As of November 15, 2007, Riverside Publishing had not filed its Report for the period ending September 30, 2007.
 - C. On December 5, 2007, Commission staff mailed Riverside Publishing a Notice of Failure to File Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report ("Notice") by first class mail.
 - D. Riverside Publishing did not respond to said Notice and did not file its Report.
 - E. Riverside Publishing did not timely file its Report for the period ending March 31, 2007. In June 2007, it received Notice that it failed to file the May 2007 Report but filed shortly after receiving the Notice.

F. Riverside Publishing is in possession of the Commission's manual for lobbyists and employers of lobbyists as required by Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-114(c), which contains the requirement of filing Reports.

G. Riverside Publishing had sufficient notice of the requirement of filing the Report for the period ending September 30, 2007, in advance of its due date of November 15, 2007.

3. Notice of violation.

A. On March 12, 2008, Commission staff sent Riverside Publishing, by certified mail, return receipt requested, a Notice that the Commission intended to consider assessment of civil penalties against Riverside Publishing at its April 22, 2008 meeting, because of its failure to file its Report by November 15, 2007 ("Show Cause Notice")

B. The Show Cause Notice set forth the allegations, the maximum amount of civil penalties that could be assessed, the date, place, and time of the meeting, and Riverside Publishing's opportunity to participate in an informal proceeding at the meeting either by appearing personally or by submitting a sworn statement and documents.

C. The Show Cause Notice was returned due to an incorrect address. Commission Records do not indicate that notice was provided by Respondent showing a change of address.

D. The Commission sent a second Show Cause Notice on March 24, 2008.

E. The Commission received a return receipt substantiating that Riverside Publishing received the Show Cause Notice on March 26, 2008.

4. Filing of Report. The Commission received Riverside Publishing's Semi-Annual Lobbying Expenditure Report on March 28, 2008.

5. Showing of Cause. Riverside Publishing submitted an affidavit in response to the Show Cause Notice whereby it explained that the contact person for the Respondent was no longer employed with Riverside Publishing at the time of notification. As a result, such notification was lost or misdirected. In addition, the Commission was not notified until after the Show Cause Notice had been sent that Respondent had terminated its lobbyist effective March 30, 2007. This matter was on the agenda at the Commission's regularly scheduled meetings on April 22, 2008, May 27, 2008 and June 24, 2008. Riverside Publishing did not appear at any of the Commission meetings to explain its conduct.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Riverside Publishing had a duty under Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-302(c) to timely update, correct, or otherwise modify its Registration Statement.
2. Under Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-306(a)(iii), the Commission may administratively assess a civil penalty of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per day up to a maximum of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00) if an employer of a lobbyist fails, without good cause, to timely update, correct or otherwise modify its Registration Statement.
3. Riverside Publishing did not show good cause why it failed to timely amend its Registration Statement.
4. Therefore, it is appropriate for the Commission to assess a civil penalty pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-306(a)(1)(A). The Commission would be within its authority to assess the maximum penalty of seven hundred fifty ($750.00) dollars.
5. The Commission finds it appropriate to assess a civil penalty of three hundred dollars ($300.00) for Riverside's failure to timely update, correct or otherwise modify its Registration Statement.
6. This assessment cannot become final until after respondent has been afforded notice and an opportunity for a hearing. Tenn. Code Ann. § 3-6-107(8). Respondent's failure to participate in the informal assessment process is without prejudice to its right to a contested case hearing under the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 4-5-101 - 4-5-325.

ORDER

It is therefore ORDERED as follows:

1. A civil penalty in the amount of three hundred dollars ($300.00) is assessed against Riverside Publishing for failure to timely update, correct, or otherwise modify its Registration Statement.
2. The Executive Director shall enter this Order.
3. The Executive Director shall cause a copy of this Order to be provided to the Respondent, by either personal service, certified mail, return receipt requested, or overnight delivery.
4. Respondent shall have the right to seek reconsideration of this Order by filing with the Commission, within fourteen (14) days after the date of entry of this Order, a written Request for Reconsideration in the form set forth in the Commission's draft Rules on Administrative Sanctions.

5. Alternatively, Respondent shall have the right to initiate a contested case proceeding by filing with the Commission, within thirty (30) days after the date of entry of this Order, a Petition for a contested case hearing in the form set forth in the Commission's draft Rules on Administrative Sanctions.

6. Along with this Order, the Executive Director shall provide Respondent a copy of the Commission's draft Rules on Administrative Sanctions.

7. If Respondent does not timely file a Request for Reconsideration or a Petition for a contested case hearing, this Order shall become final and shall form the basis for legal action to collect the civil penalty.

SO ORDERED, this 30th day of June, 2008
